CLASSIC COCKTAILS

---

VODKA GIMLET 19,00
Originally made with gin, it goes very well with vodka too. Sugar, citrus juices, lime cordial and vodka, straight up.

WHITE LADY 19,00
Some say created at Harrys Bar in Paris, others at The Savoy in London. All we know it is a great and beautiful combination of Gin, Orange liqueur, lemon juice, sugar and a dash of egg white.

DAIQUIRI 19,00
Created by Jeanings Cox, an American mining engineer in 1898 whilst working in a mine, near the Cuban town of Daiquiri. A fresh combination of rum, lime and sugar. Simple. Ask your bartender for a preferred rum, if any.

MARGARITA 19,00
Mentioned in Esquire's magazine December 1953 issue. "She is from Mexico, Señores, and she is lovely to look at, exciting and provocative". Tequila, orange liqueur, lime juice and agave, served straight up or on the rocks, salt or no salt? Let us know.

WHISKEY SOUR 19,00
It thrived during the Prohibition era and still very popular to this day, in America they even have National Whiskey Sour Day, the 25th August. Classically Bourbon, but scotch can replace it if preferred, lemon juice, sugar, dash of egg white and bitters.

Or please feel free to request any other classic cocktail to our staff.
